The Watercolour Society of WA (Inc.) Annual Awards Exhibition 2020

General Rules and Guidelines

The painting rules for the exhibition are exactly the same as stated in the Constitution:

“3.1 A painting is deemed to be a watercolour when water is the vehicle for mixing and applying colour pigments.

3.2 Any water based medium may be used in the recognized watercolour techniques with the exception of water soluble acrylics, oils and pastels.”

ENTRIES:

- Watercolour must be the hero of your work.....
- Number of paintings—up to 5 paintings each but due to Covid restrictions in the following combinations:
 - ⇒ 1 full sheet painting (1.2 x 1.2mtrs maximum including frame) plus 3 other paintings
 - ⇒ up to 5 paintings, half sheet and under, 90 x 90 cms maximum size including frame.
- Watercolour canvasses, aquaboard etc which have been sealed are acceptable.
- Pen and ink (as long as the ink is water-based), gouache and products marked “watercolour....” are acceptable
- Only works that can be hung will be accepted
- All entries must be for sale, members’ own work, recently completed, not previously exhibited in WA.
- All components of framing, front and back, must be of a professional standard—all framing will be checked on arrival and sub-standard frames will be rejected. Cord hangings only, with all D-rings taped over to prevent damage to other paintings.
- Artworks must be clearly labelled on the back of the work with the WSWA label provided,

HANGING FEES:

CATEGORIES

All categories will be eligible for the “Overall Winner” award.

Still Life Category

A still life is a work of art depicting inanimate subject matter, typically commonplace objects which may be either natural (food, flowers, plants, rocks, or shells etc) or man-made (drinking glasses, books, vases, jewellery, coins, pipes etc). The subject matter of a still life painting is anything that does not move or is dead.

Innovative Category

An “Innovative Painting” is one which involves the innovative use of the watercolour medium which may be applied to any surface and providing it complies with the definition of a watercolour painting as given in the Constitution quoted above. Entries into this category are required to include a synopsis ie approx. 50 words - why your painting is “innovative”.

Special Category—“Subject and Title beginning with “W”

Your subject and title must begin with the letter “W” for the Watercolour Society of WA in celebration of our 40th Anniversary

Plein Air Category

Paintings must have been completed 90% en plein air

General Category

Any painting you choose not to put in any of the above categories.
